

How to reach the island from abroad

Closest airport to reach the island of Syros from abroad is:

1. Athens International Airport (ATH)

- Using Piraeus (Athens) port as connection port for Athens International Airport (60 km from airport).
- Duration of trip from Piraeus port to Syros Island is 2h30m (by high speed Boat) and 4h (by boat)

2. Mykonos International Airport (JMK)

- Using Mykonos Island port as connection port for Mykonos International Airport (3 km from airport).
- Duration of trip from Mykonos port to Syros Island is 45m (by high speed Boat) and 1h30m (by boat)

3. Syros National Airport (JSY)*

(Using an international flight through Athens International Airport)

- Olympic Air flights daily from Athens International Airport to Syros Airport
- Athens International Airport (ATH)
Aegean Airlines, Olympic Air and all major European airlines flight to Athens International Airport.
- Mykonos International Airport (JMK)
Major European Airlines, Charter Flights and Low cost carriers flights to Mykonos Airport.
Thomson Airways, Condor, Air Berlin, German Wings, Lauda Air, Easy Jet, Vueling, Tui Fly
- Syros National Airport (JSY)
Daily flights with Olympic Air

Airlines: www.aegeanair.com, www.olympicair.com,

Athens International Airport: www.aia.gr

How to reach the island of Syros from internal country

1. Syros National Airport (JSY)

Olympic Air flights from Athens International Airport to Syros Airport

2. Syros Port

Syros port is connected with major ports of Greece and Cyclades Islands as Piraeus (Athens), Tinos, Mykonos, Naxos, Paros, Ios, Santorini, Kos, and Rhodes port.

Shipping Companies: www.hellasferries.com, www.bluestarferries.com